Here saddle of venison with fat two inches thick rabout the kidneys, would be before us; and the thoughts of culting off large slices and sticking then upon the end of a ramrou; and broiling and eating them with just a dash of salt and a , pinch or so of pepper-simply as a whet while he boys might be cooking supper-would crowd thick upon us. And the ducks we could see them in pairs, with their dimisticks stuck through their pope's noses, and laying side by side upon a plate, so brown (they should be done brown,) so cozy like, so full breasted, leven without padding, though stuffed up to the inines. What a supper they would make: was the same way with groose, (such bosoms is they had !) and pike and perch. We could even hear them frying in imagination, and could see them laid out, with a coating of Ind.an meal all over them, like a coating of manna over the earth, as it appeared to the famished children of Israel in the Desert.
